Overview

Laura's practice is focused on litigation, with an emphasis in municipal/government law, constitutional law, premises liability, product liability and professional liability. She also handles business contract disputes and negotiations.

Experience

- She has defended numerous premises liability cases, obtaining summary judgment on behalf of the landowner.
- She has been involved in the defense of accountant, architect and legal malpractice claims.
- She defends Ohio municipalities and other government subdivisions with a concentration on state and federal statutory immunity; Wil Weisenfelder and Laura recently argued before the Ohio Supreme Court and received a unanimous decision, in their favor, as to the application of an exception to immunity for employees of political subdivisions.
- She has experience negotiating on behalf of private businesses in Ohio, specifically contract disputes and non-compete agreements
